Damon Taziyah

DESIGNER. DIRECTOR. DEDICATED.

INFO

Damon Taziyah (tuh-zee-uh) is a multi-disciplined designer and Co-founder of Artistry Studios LLC. In this role, he collaborates with Artistry's internal team and strategic partners to lead local, regional, and national design initiatives.

An award-winning creative and self-described "Tech-Head," Damon has worked with multiple agencies and iconic companies such as Home Depot, Hiron Advertising, Locker USA, The Williams Randall Agency, Universal Music Group, Afterschool HQ, Warner Music Group, Cummins Inc., Usher's New Look, Uniworld Group, and the Indiana State Government.

Damon also serves on the board and participates in various initiatives of the Kheprw Institute, a nonprofit organization dedicated to empowering marginalized voices and building community wealth in Indianapolis.

He is a proud husband of over 20 years and a father of four children. Damon practices as a black-belt instructor, artist, and community advocate when not delivering kick-ass designs.

Born and raised in Indy as part of a family of creative entrepreneurs, Damon knows what it means to set forth a vision and work to achieve it. He's always been a creative problem solver and storyteller in meaningful ways.

Partner with positive, passionate, and purpose-driven people on impactful projects.
